

Father Edward's Notebook

Dear Parishioners,

We are living in an interesting time without the public celebration of Mass for a gathered community. I will continue to live stream Masses through my public facebook page, @FrEdwardLooney and also offer other live streamed opportunities for prayer, including adoration, divine mercy chaplet, the rosary, and stations of the cross. I will announce daily what the schedule for prayer will look like so you might tune in online or catch it later in the day.

The church in Brussels will be open each day allowing individuals opportunity for private prayer. Please be mindful that if there are 10 people in the space, you will have to return at another time.

I also know that people may wish to set up appointments. To request a meeting, you can do so at the following link: <https://calendly.com/fredwardlooney/appointment>. This will give you access to availability on my calendar. Preferably, all meetings would take place in Brussels, but should you need to meet in Lincoln or Rosiere please indicate that when booking your appointment.

During this time, the parish continues its ministry of sharing the gospel and proclaiming a message of hope in Jesus Christ.

I know some of our parishioners will be out of work and there is the possibility you are not being paid. We understand your hardship and will be here for you to provide whatever it is that we can for you. Without weekly Masses, it means that there will be no weekend collection to help us with our weekly operating expenses. Our parish offers online giving. If you are able to still contribute financially without creating a hardship, please consider this option, you also may mail your contribution to the parish office. You can find the link for online giving at our parish website.

As you spend more time at home, I hope and pray it will be an opportunity to engage your spiritual life with your family.

United in Prayer,

Fr. Edward Looney
