

Father Edward's Notebook

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we welcome our Deacon who will preach for the very first time to our congregation. This is a help to me especially this weekend so that I only have to preach one homily, because Lincoln will be celebrating their First Communion Sunday. If people from Lincoln would like to hear Deacon Ray's homily, you can catch it live on Facebook Live or catch it afterward when it's posted on social media.

You might wonder why we are having First Communion in Lincoln so early. The simple answer is COVID. There is so much uncertainty about the future. Will the virus get worse during late winter and early spring? Will there be another government shutdown? Would we have to delay classes because of close contact? Taking everything into account, we decided to take advantage of right now and ensure the successful completion of First Communion. Our students received the same instruction as they would if it was in April because they met twice a week for a while. Our special thanks to Lisa and Heather who prepared our students and for the parents who made sacrifices so this could happen.

This weekend as we celebrate the feast of the Lord's Baptism, it is a good opportunity for us to pause and pray for the priest or deacon who baptized us or our children and also for our Godparents and the godparents again of your children.

Lastly, as I've mentioned several times already, our holy father Pope Francis has called for a year of devotion to Saint Joseph. Each Wednesday on my public Facebook page and YouTube channel I will be releasing a video interview with someone about devotion to Saint Joseph. This is just another way in which we can foster adult education during this time of pandemic.

Blessings,

Fr. Edward Looney

RE/CCD: The next set of Gospel Weeklies for classes starting January 13 will be ready for pick up starting this weekend. High school classes will resume live classes via Google Meets on January 13.

Confirmation students will have assignments in the Google Classroom for the month of January. An in-person work time will be scheduled for Wednesday, January 27 for students who have not completed required assignments. Location and time will be sent via text message to students.

Confirmation is scheduled for Wednesday, April 28 at St. Thomas the Apostle in Sugar Bush.

Thank You: If you haven't already, please take a book Do Something Beautiful for God as our Christmas giveaway or stop by the Office to pick one up. Be inspired by the wisdom of St. Teresa of Calcutta and look for companion video reflections from Fr. Edward and others through our social media pages in the future!

Deacon: Our parish has been blessed to receive the appointment of a deacon who will assist Fr. Edward with pastoral responsibilities. Deacon Ray Ambrosius served previously in the Fox Valley but recently moved to the area. You will soon meet him at weekend Masses. He will preach Masses occasionally and also assist with baptisms, marriages, and funeral wake services. His appointment means we can offer baptisms after 4:00pm Mass in Rosiere and 8:30am Mass in Brussels, if the family would so choose. We will be sharing an introductory video from Deacon Ray on social media and through email in the next few days.

Books Available: The new Word Among Us and Living Faith books are available in the entrance.
