

Father Edward's Notebook

Dear Parishioners,

Resolutions for the new year always confront us at the beginning of January 2022. Beside the usual personal goals of health and wellness, consider making a spiritual resolution, such as praying daily, reading a spiritual book or daily devotional, the rosary, or a stronger commitment to Sunday Mass.

Our parish a few years ago subscribed to Formed.org. The platform, much like Netflix, offers Catholic films, bible study programs, and movies for the children in your life. To subscribe, visit formed.org. Click sign up as a parishioner. Then type "Four Saints Religious Education." And you will be able to register. This also could be a part of your new year resolution. Engage with more Catholic material and study.

And if you are looking for a movie recommendation in the theaters right now, I highly recommend American Underdog. It is the true story of Kurt Warner, who you might recall was the longtime quarterback for the then St. Louis Rams and later for the Arizona Cardinals. Did you know that he actually was a part of a Packer's mini-camp one year? I had a chance to see the film and I was deeply moved by Kurt's commitment to his girlfriend turned wife and raising her children as his own. They struggled through so much but at the end of the day accomplished their dreams. For the football loving people in your life, I'd encourage you to make it a night out to watch this faith-filled, family friendly film. It's always good to support projects like this when they are in the theaters because it sends a message that there is interest in this type of film.

Prayerfully Yours,

Fr. Edward Looney
