

Father Edward's Notebook

Dear parishioners,

I'm excited to share that our parish is participating in the one by One campaign along with every parish in the Diocese of Green Bay. This extraordinary effort will help fund the needs of our parish and greatly enhance shared Diocesan ministries to strengthen the Church in northeastern Wisconsin.

The one by One campaign supports local parish needs, faith formation for people of all ages, expanding counseling and outreach for Catholic Charities, and care for our seminarians and retired priests. This campaign will ensure our local Church is strong and vibrant for generations to come.

Fifty percent of our parish families' campaign pledges made and fulfilled over five years will stay in our parish to support our needs. You will be hearing more about this over the course of the next several months.

Many of you will be receiving invitations to participate as a volunteer for this campaign, either through a phone call or mail. I ask that you respond to these invitations and attend upcoming events to learn more about this important campaign when you are called. We also have forms in the back to fill out if you are interested in becoming a volunteer. If you are interested, fill them out and a volunteer will be calling you with more information.

I look forward to further discussing the one by One campaign with you all in the upcoming weeks and months.

Blessings,

Fr. Edward Looney

P.S. On Monday, August 22, there is going to be a one night movie release of a Spanish film called Slaves and Kings. It is dubbed in English and an enjoyable movie about the life of St. Anthony Mary Claret. Both Green Bay theatres will be hosting the film at 7pm. Supporting movies like these on their one day release sends a message to the industry that people want to see more religious films.
