

Father Edward's Notebook

Dear Parishioners,

Last weekend we had a very successful Kermis celebration. Thank you to everyone who planned it, volunteered, and attended. This is one of our most successful fundraisers each year, and over the past five years has allowed us to accomplish so much as a parish. Thank you for donating and thank you for being there.

This weekend we welcome Fr. Tony Birdsall as celebrant in Lincoln and Rosiere. Typically Fr. Tony would fill in just for Lincoln this weekend. Earlier this weekend on Saturday morning, I was in Rockford, Illinois, to witness the profession of a very good friend of mine as a cloistered nun. Earlier in the week, I was commenting to one of my Catholic media friends, that every weekend I have had a wedding, and this week, I have it off from weddings, but I am attending the profession of a sister, which is like a wedding. That person quickly corrected me and reminded me that the religious sister or nun was marrying Jesus. So I have a wedding this weekend that I am attending as a witness, and not as the celebrant.

If you are looking for something to do on this holiday weekend, on Sunday, you are invited to attend the Brussels Kermis. The celebration is much like ours, and also is an excellent fundraiser for that parish community for the sake of their future projects as well.

Enjoy the holiday as we usher back in our regular routines.

Fr. Edward
